A Mother's Love

PATRICIA A. HUDSON

A Mother's Love

“A mother's love endures through all.”

~ Washington Irving

A mother's love, celebrates the wins and comforts the losses. No matter what happens, you can always count on a mother to give you a love unlike any other.

The art of mothering is to teach the art of living.

*Mother is a verb. It's something you do.
Not Just who you are.*

~ Elaine Heffner

Deuteronomy 4:9

Teach what you've seen and heard to your children and grandchildren.

Teach your children the wisdom and lessons you learn in life.

Proverbs 22:6

Teach children in a way that fits their needs, and even when they are old, they will not leave the right path.

Training is a process. Training takes time, energy, repetition, patience, and modeling.

"My mother was my role model before I even knew what that word was."

~ Lisa Leslie

No matter how old you are, there's something to learn from mothers.

“I know that she was the kindest, most generous spirit I have ever known, and that what is best in me I owe to her.”

~ Barack Obama

Proverbs 1:8-9

So, my son, pay attention to your father's guidance, and do not ignore what your mother taught you—Wear their wisdom as a badge of honor and maturity, as fine jewelry around your neck.

The countless years mothers spend nurturing and caring for their children are reflected in the acts of kindness from their children later on.

To be good, they must have seen good.
